

From: win.curtiss@chrsolutions.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 10:26am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Enough is enough! It is time to move on. No one has been more open and forthcoming during all of this inquiry than has been Bill Gates and Microsoft. The Justice Department has finished its work and no evidence of predatory pricing or marketing was brought forward. The public has been served. And now that same Justice Department has much more serious and real problems to address. The American public and the technology industry can now best be served by moving on.